Please find attached a Notice to Mariners providing details of proposed Jacking trials to test soil conditions at up to 5 locations by the vessel SEA CHALLENGER. The Jacking trials are scheduled to be performed from 14th September 2017 and expected to be completed by 23rd September 2017 (weather dependent). The proposed testing locations are detailed in the attached notice and all vessels in the vicinity are advised to keep at least 500 metres clear of the operations.

Any queries regarding this notice should be directed to Statoil Wind Control Centre: statoilwindcontrol@statoil.com

If you do not wish to be included on the circulation list or are aware of any changes in contact information please let me know.

Kind regards

Dave Scott
